NOTICE TO CLIENTS

I wanted to take this opportunity to announce that, as of January 1, 2015, the Law Offices of Robert H. Glorch has been reorganized as the Law Offices of Jeffrey R. Gottlieb, LLC. My associate of nearly 15 years, Jeffrey R. Gottlieb (“Jeff”), will be taking over as principal attorney for the new firm. I am, however, remaining on with the new firm in a part-time role as “of counsel” attorney and will remain able to continue to serve existing and new clients. Below is a Q&A about the change:

- Question: Will the office address or contact information change?
Answer: No.
- Question: Will this effect any existing retainer agreements or engagements?
Answer: No. After January 1, 2015, invoices will be issued under the new firm name. However, rates and fees under current fee agreements and engagements will not change.
- Question: Will I be working with a different attorney on my file?
Answer: No. The current principal attorney working on your file, whether Bob or Jeff, will not change.
- Question: Will this change or otherwise effect my case or matter?
Answer: No. The new firm will continue all existing matters and cases as is, under the same terms of the client engagement agreement already in place.
- Question: Will the new firm be accepting new cases and matters?
Answer: Yes. The new firm is open and running immediately and happy to accept referrals to new clients (and prior clients with new matters), with a continued concentration on estate planning and estate administration.

If you should have any other questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to call the office at (847) 991-2250. For more information on the firm and practice areas, and to read and subscribe to Jeff’s blog, please visit www.illinoisestateplan.com.
